Bank of Maumee Hosts More than 200 Shareholders and Maumee Community Leaders for Bank Dedication and Ribbon-cutting Ceremony

MAUMEE, Ohio – (Oct. 30, 2006) -- Bank of Maumee, a new community bank that debuted earlier this month, was dedicated Wednesday, Oct. 25, 2006, in a ribbon-cutting ceremony that was attended by more than 200 shareholders and Maumee community leaders.

The Honorable Tim Wagener, mayor of the City of Maumee, and Bank of Maumee President Lee Dunn cut the ribbon at the bank's new 7,500-square-foot facility located at 3425 Briarfield Blvd.

Dunn said the bank's target market is local residents and small business owners. The bank provides a wide range of services including ATM and electronic banking. The 16-member staff consisting of seasoned banking professionals has more than 255 years of financial experience.

The bank's staff includes Kevin T. Rahe, Senior Lending Officer; Richard D. Heltzel, Chief Credit Officer; Bill Pitzen, Meredith Moore and Alan Hazlett, Commercial Lending Officers; Veronica Fish, Retail Banking Manager; Kate Stamm, Mortgage Loan Officer; Cheryl Griffin, Leslie Harst and Denise Lubinski, Personal Bankers; Sue Martin, Operations/Compliance Officer; Beth Miller, Senior Credit Analyst; Kelly Childress, Loan Administrator; JoAnn Phipps Executive Assistant and Nick Stolarski, Transportation Liaison.

Business leaders from the community make up Bank of Maumee's Board of Directors. Joining Dunn on the board are:

- Robert Alexander, President/CEO, YMCA of Greater Toledo
- Thomas J. Beutler, Partner, Tebay Mosley Associates, LLC
- Peter A. Dewhirst, Attorney, Shindler, Neff, Holmes, Schlageter & Mohler, LLP
