Spotlight on Our Small Business Clients

Stacey Gardner, owner, with store mascot, Truffles

Don't let your sweet tooth go unsatisfied. Head over to the Shops at Fallen Timbers and fulfill your cravings with the sweet treats from the Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory. Owned by Stacey and Trent Gardner, the store is filled with items such as truffles, caramels, creams, clusters, meltaways, and chocolate dipped fruit. Stop by and watch the employees use the copper kettle to dip apples in caramel and then cover them with decadent toppings. Smell the chocolate as they fold and cool their fudge on a large marble slab table. They'll even dip a frozen banana or cheesecake for you, and roll it in nuts if you like. Don't disappoint your sweetheart with the same old present this Sweetest Day. Nothing says romance like a chocolate dipped strawberry, or a few truffles. Go to the Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory and truly make it a sweet, sweet day.
